by the explosion of black damp that occurred yesterday afternoon.
Most of the dead are Finlanders and negroes. Members of the res-pitiable stories of the scenes about the seventh level, which is as deep as it has been possible to penetrate.

SHOT WITHOUT WARNING.

Terrible Tragedy Enacted in Todd County Tuesday.

Bud Garth shot and killed Younger Watkins Tuesday afternoon.
The tragedy occurred at the home of Henry Watkins, brother of the dead man, a few miles north-west of Trenton. Garth and Watkins had some trouble a few days before.
On the day of the killing Garth went to Henry Watkins' house, and seeing Younger Watkins standing in the door fired upon him, it is said, without warning. Garth immediately disappeared, but later returned to the house and fired into a crowd which had gathered there.
The charge of shot cut the front
brim off Mr. Thos. McElwain's hat.
Garth then left and at last accounts
was at large.

Watkins was a much respected young farmer and was about 20 years old.

Garth has served a term or two in the penitentiary and bears an unequivocal reputation.

Noted Correspondent and Traveler

News newspapers in the United States are able to command the service of as brilliant a corps of correspondents as that of The Chicago Record-Herald. Its choice of a Washington correspondent is indicative of The Record-Herald policy of obtaining the best there is to be had. Walter Wellman, the well known authority on political subjects and one of the ablest writers of the day, acts in that capacity. Mr. Wellman was born in Mentor, Ohio, Nov. 3, 1858. At the age of 14 he began his newspaper experience, establishing at that age a weekly paper in the little town of Sutton, Neb. In 1875 he returned to Ohio, and a year later established the Cincinnati Evening Post. In 1884 he became the Washington correspondent of the Chicago Herald, and in 1892 he visited Central America and the West Indies, and located the landing place of Columbus on Watling's (San Salvador) Island, and marked the spot with a large stone monument. Mr. Wellman's dashes to the north pole are well known. In 1894 he made the first of his two arctic voyages of exploration, reaching the latitude of 81 degrees northeast of Spitzbergen. In 1898 he returned to the North, penetrated to Franz Joseph Land, returning again to this country in 1899. On each trip he met with wonderful success in the discovery of new islands and lands, and brought back with him scientific data and information of great value to the American Geographical Society.

Mr. Wellman has been a voluminous writer for scientific magazines and popular periodicals. On returning from his arctic trips he resumed his long association with The Record-Herald, and is now the Washington correspondent of that paper. His incisive discussion of contemporary affairs has given him a high place in the regard of statesmen and scientists of the day.

PENARRUBIA

Generous Spanish Governor Honored by Filipinos and Commission.

The town of Patoc, Abra province, will hereafter be known as Penarrubia, and thereby, says Manila American, long live. During the Spanish times in the Philippines there was a governor of the province of Abra named Penarrubia, who was appointed from Spain and when he took hold of the reins of government in his province he made things hum. After he had served several years the rinderpest struck the land and the people became poorer as the months went on. Gov. Penarrubia gave plentifully to the people from his own pocket, and even went so far as to import carabao and allow the people to use them. In this way he saved many people from starving and kept more from being ruined.

With the advent of the Americans his occupation, like that of Othello's, was gone and he returned to his native land. The natives whom he had befriended in the time of their distress remembered his generosity and determined to award him some honor worthy of his deeds. They named many children and streets after him, and they petitioned the civil commission in Manila to allow them as a mark of respect and honor to change the name of the town of Patoc and bestow that of Gov. Penarrubia on one of the largest cities in the province and the most benefited by the ex-governor's goodness. The facts were laid before the commission, and an act was passed by the commission giving the desired permission for the people of the province of Abra to honor their former governor.

New Cure for Drunkenness.

According to Dr. Forbes Winslow the best cure for inebriety is "suggestion." "Throw the drunkard into a hypnotic state, give him cold water, suggest that it is Scotch, and the medium believes." Do this often enough and a complete cure is effected, and the quondam drunkard prefers spring water to beer. The influence thus exerted is a purely hypnotic one. The "suggestion" acts on the subconscious mind of the patient, and gradually becomes part of his nature. Hysterical people and those suffering from severe brain diseases are not amenable to the influences of suggestion.

Dwarf Races of Europe.

Prof. Arthur Thompson, writing in Knowledge, discusses the variation in height of different races. Apart from the Lapps, whose height as a rule is about five feet, we have other races of small people inhabiting different parts of Europe. Quite 14 per cent of the population of Sicily and Sardinia do not exceed 4 feet 11 inches in height.

PEOPLE WE KNOW.

They Are Hopkinsville People, and What They Say is of Local Interest.

When an incident like the following occurs right here at home, it is bound to carry weight with our readers. So many strange occurrences go the rounds of the press, are published as facts, people become skeptical. On one subject skepticism is rapidly disappearing. This is due to the actual experience of our citizens, and their public utterances regarding them. The doubter must doubt no more in the face of such evidence as this. The public statement of a reputable citizen living right here at home, one whom you can see every day, leaves no ground for the skeptic to stand on.

John J. Basford, cooper, of 766 East Ninth street, says: "My back used to be so lame and sore at times that when I bent it was all I could do to straighten up again. The pains were always with me and I could not stand for any length of time without feeling them. I doctored at one time but did not obtain the slightest benefit. My attention was called to an advertisement of Doan's Kidney Pills and I determined to try them. I got a box at Thomas & Traher's drug store and after using them a few days could not help but notice a marked improvement in my condition. My health is better now than it has been for years. I give all the credit to Doan's Kidney Pills, and strongly recommend them to other sufferers." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Poster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.

In Memoriam.

God in His infinite wisdom has seen fit to take from among the living James Walter Meacham who died March 5, 1903. He was twenty-four years of age, the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Meacham, who live near Kelly's, Christian county, Ky.

Early in 1902 he joined the U. S. Army and was sent with his regiment to the Philippine islands where he died. I am told he was a model soldier, true alike to his friends and country. The loyalty with which he served his country is demonstrated by his giving up father, mother, brothers, home and friends to offer himself a willing sacrifice upon the altar of his country. Like the good soldier that he was, to his flag and his God he consecrated himself; and when entreated to come back, with his eyes turned to the stars and stripes I think his answer was: "Entreat me not to leave thee or to return from following thee; thy people shall be my people and thy God my God." Grieve not for him, mother, for today he is at rest in that land where warfare is unknown and arms are forever staked. In his death the mother has lost a manly, loving son, his brothers a true brother and his country a gallant defender. May peace and rest be his.

Only the ashes of the just, Smell sweet and blossom in the dust."

—R. A. C. July 1, 1903.

The Boss Worm Medicine.

H. P. Kumpke, Druggist, Leighton, Ala., writes: "One of my customers had a child, which was sick, and threw up all food, could retain nothing on its stomach. He bought one bottle of White's Cream Vermifuge, and in a few days it brought up 119 worms from the child. It is the boss worm medicine in the world." White's Cream Vermifuge is also the children's tonic. It improves their digestion and assimilation of food, strengthens their nervous system and restores them to the health, vigor and elasticity of spirits natural to childhood. 25c at R. C. Hardwick's.

Hotel Burned.

The big hotel of the Southern Pacific railroad, at Tucson, Ariz., was destroyed by fire.

About eighteen months ago Mr. W. S. Manning, of Albany, N. Y., widely known in trade circles as the representative of the Albany Chemical Co., was suffering from a protracted attack of diarrhoea. "I tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," he says, "and obtained immediate relief. I cheerfully recommend this medicine to those similarly afflicted." Sold by C. K. Wyly, druggist.

This dog will be found hereafter advertising Pyle & Smithson, furniture and undertaking, at Pyle's old stand, Garrett Block.

PUTTING IT PLAINLY.

The Young Man and His Future Father-Law.

The old gentleman didn't want the young gentleman to marry the young lady, the young lady being the old gentleman's daughter.

So when the young gentleman came on the all-important mission, the old gentleman set his face against the young gentleman.

"No, sir," said he, with angry emphasis, "you cannot have my daughter."

"But I want her," urged the young gentleman, "and what is some consideration in the count, she wants me."

"That makes no difference, sir; you can't have her."

"That means, I presume, that you want me to give her up?"

"Exactly."

The young gentleman says the London Tit-Bits, took a hitch in himself.

"Do you think I am going to do it?" he asked, in a tone which did not strike the old gentleman as altogether submissive.

"I do."

"Well, no wonder you don't want me for a son-in-law if you think I'm that kind of a fellow. I don't blame you at all. I wouldn't have that kind of a son-in-law myself, even if some-in-law were going at a premium. But, my dear sir, I'm not that kind. I want your daughter for my wife, and I'm going to have her; she wants me for a husband; I have no objection to you as a father-in-law, and she rather admires you as a father. Therefore I am warranted in joining the combination, and if you want to act ugly, well, we will, as dutiful children, humor your whim, and patch it up somehow with the friends of the family, who will be wanting to know what is the matter with you, anyhow. See?"

And the old gentleman had wisdom enough to understand the situation exactly.

EXCEPTION TO THE RULE.

The One Investment Jones Made Which Proved Profitable.

Jones' wife has long had a serene contempt for Jones' idea as to the value of money. One of his many hobbies was books, and every penny Jones could spare, or thought, he could spare, found its way into the palm of the bookseller. One day, says the New York Post, he started home with $12 with which to purchase shirts, having been notified by Mrs. Jones that unless he returned with the shirts he need never again seek his home. Jones set out bravely, but in some strange way found himself in a book auction room within an hour, and without one hint.

Two hours later all the shirt money was gone, and Jones was wondering how to get home with four books under his arm and explain away the shirt dealer. When he reached home he disposed the books upon the shelves, so that they should be lost, as were, among their kith and kin. One of the volumes was an obsolete work of information, very quaint and certainly worth more than the 40 cents Jones paid for it. Fortune favored him in the matter of the shirts. Mrs. Jones never once asked him whether he had bought them, and within a few days he managed to smuggle in six shirts, and the incident was apparently closed.

But one day an incident in the march of the world's events made the 40-cent book a treasure. Jones had the information only obtainable otherwise by ransacking a great library. Promptly did Jones sit him down and write a long valuable article in the aid of the book, and in a fortnight he proudly laid a substantial check in Mrs. Jones' hand and told her how he had made it out of a half dozen shirts.

On the College President.

President Tucker, of Dartmouth college, is "telling one himself." In fact, he avows that the entire story is a little too personal to be enjoyed. Last summer he went to a Maine town for a short rest and boarded with a farmer who was in the habit of taking a few summer guests into his house to help "lift the mortgage." Some time after the president received a letter from his former landlady asking for his patronage during the coming summer. "There are several little matters that I desire changed should my family decide to pass the coming summer at your house," wrote President Tucker in reply. "We don't like the maid, Mary. Moreover, we do not think a sty so near the house is satisfactory. And this is what he received in reply: 'Mary has went. We haven't no hog sense you want away last September.'

HOW TO BECOME BEAUTIFUL

To Perfect Your Figure.

A famous physician, in speaking of health, beauty, and a good figure, said:

"In my experience many American women have not the strength to take up outdoor sports, many lack the inclination for active physical exertion, household cares or office work—they feel languid, tired and worn-out by the weaknesses so common to their sex. Some women have household duties which keep them shut up at home. For all such persons I should advise a few simple daily exercises, with light dumbbells, devoting only ten minutes of the day to it at first, and gradually increasing it until they find that their whole being is stimulated and strengthened by it. If the young girl—or the matron—is troubled at certain periods with irregularity, weakening drains, and backache—perhaps faint and dizzy spells—then she should take something medicinally to correct these faults. Nothing could be better than a prescription which Dr. R. V. Pierce used in his large practice for many years, in the diseases of women. This 'Favorite Prescription' of Dr. Pierce has had an immense sale for the past thirty-six years, because of its uniform success in the cure of women's diseases, and because of the many thousand women who have attested to its merit. Being made entirely of extracts of roots and herbs, without alcohol, it is perfectly harmless to the most delicate system, and the best ready-to-hand remedy in the market."

"To insure perfect health, every tissue, bone, nerve, tendon, or muscle should take from the blood certain materials for its nourishment and growth. Every organ must have its period of activity and of rest, so as to circulate the vital fluid in a proper manner to nourish every part. This is why I believe in advising every woman to take gentle exercise out of doors or indoors. If the functions are not regular or the pains are severe then she should at once use a reliable remedy."

Mrs. A. BELVEA, of Rockland, New Brunswick, said:

"I suffered more than a year from nervousness and functional derangement. Had pains in the left side of abdomen all the time. Some days could hardly get around. Kept my bed about half the time. I wrote to Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., and got his advice for which I have ever been thankful. I began taking 'Favorite Prescription' right away as he advised. It makes me sleep well at night which I never did before, and I feel rested. Can truthfully say Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has cured me."

Mrs. A. O. SCRIPPTURE, of Prescott, Arizona, said:

"Words cannot express how grateful I am for what Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has done for me. For nearly ten years I was a great sufferer with ulceration and sickness peculiar to women. I doctored for several years; got no better until I began taking the 'Prescription.' Now I can stand on my feet and work hard all day. I feel that life is worth living, and shall always recommend Dr. Pierce's medicines."

ADVICE TO MARRIED WOMEN. You should have a good medical book that tells you about anatomy, wifehood and motherhood. Read Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Advice. It contains over 1000 pages. A copy, paper-covered, may be obtained absolutely FREE, by sending $1.00 in stamps, to cover cost of mailing ONLY. If French cloth binding is desired, send two stamps extra ($1.00 in stamps in all), to the World's Dispensary Medical Association, 255 N. 3rd St., Buffalo, N. Y.

THE GENUS HOBBO.

Essentially Different from the Tramp Class—The Distinction.

"The genus hobbo is rapidly supplanting the tramp in the evolution of mankind," said a student of sociology to a New Orleans Times-Democrat reporter. "There is a probability that this statement will be denied by many persons who do not know the facts as they are, but such denial will not bear any weight with the people who have dealings with the under strata of life. To the ordinary observer there is no difference between the hobbo and the tramp. Both are accounted worthless, lazy, shiftless and generally disreputable. There is a difference, however, and it is marked to a most noticeable degree. The tramp roams over the country at will, shirks labor of every kind, and has no desire except to eat. And he will be satisfied with any quality of food, so long as the quantity is satisfactory. If he cannot get his food by begging, he will steal it. He is satisfied to sleep anywhere, in daytime or at night. The hobbo, however, is far different. His main idea is to roam. He wants no permanent habitation except under conditions most particularly inviting. He is willing to work, and does work. He will arrive in New Orleans on a freight, having paid his passage by giving the train crew a small amount of money or something which is equivalent. He will probably have a dollar or two when he reaches this city. He will immediately look out for some job and will work steadily and faithfully until he has seen the city and its sights and the novelty has begun to pall. Then he will move to some other burg, where the same programme will be enacted. The hobbo generally starts out when he is from 16 to 25 years, and as a rule he has either degenerated into a tramp or settled down to a permanent habitation by the time he is 30. There is an attractiveness about the life which appeals to many of the youngsters of to-day, and for that reason the tribe is increasing. It is running the tramp out of business, and soon the tramp will be a freak, an object of attraction to the sidewalk of the big circus."

OLDEST PUBLIC BUILDING.

Tablet on Chester's City Hall Gives 1724 as the Date.

A bronze tablet on Chester's old city hall building was unveiled by the Delaware county chapters of the Daughters of the American Revolution recently. The mayor, members of both branches of the city councils and other city officials attended, says the Philadelphia Inquirer.

The marker, which is in the shape of a tablet, is the work of Little Hope Peters, the attractive daughter of Mrs. Peters, resident of the Delaware county chapter, who winters in Philadelphia.

An adjournment was then made to Masonic hall, where the historical exercises were held. Patriotic songs were sung and the tablet was accepted on behalf of the city by Mayor Houston.

The tablet was placed on the lower end of the city hall. The tablet measures three feet by two feet, and bears an inscription reciting that the building was erected in 1724, during the reign of George I. of England. It was the courthouse of Chester county from 1724 to 1786, and of Delaware county from 1789 to 1851, and served as Chester city hall since 1856.

The old city hall is the oldest public building in the United States by ten years; older than Faneuil hall in Boston, the "cradle of liberty," and older than the white house at Washington. In it Anthony Wayne rallied his forces in 1776 and Lafayette addressed a guest of the nation was entertained in the building in 1824.

Status of Sacajawea.

Sacajawea, the Indian girl who may well be called the heroine of the Lewis and Clark expedition, as the Indian wife of the French voyager, Dorian, was of the expedition sent out by Astor in 1811, may well be remembered in bronze or granite by the people of the vast empire to which and through which she led the way in the historic year of 1805. An example of faithfulness, endurance, kindness and tact, this Indian girl deserves to be remembered in her capacity of guide, interpreter and friend of the great Lewis and Clark expedition.—Portland Oregonian.

Grievances.

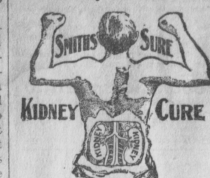

Very few people can tell the secret of their grievances. — Washington (Ia.) Democrat.

We defy the world to produce a medicine for the cure of all forms of kidney and bladder troubles, and all diseases peculiar to women, that will equal Smith's Sure Kidney Cure. Ninety-eight per cent. of the cases treated with Smith's Sure Kidney Cure that have come under our observation have been cured. We sell our medicine on a positive guarantee. Very Remarkable Cure of Diarrhoea.

"About six years ago for the first time in my life I had a sudden and severe attack of diarrhoea," says Mrs. Alice Miller, of Morgan, Tex. "I got temporary relief, but it came back again and again, and for six long years I have suffered more misery and agony than I can tell. It was worse than death. My husband spent hundreds of dollars for physicians' prescriptions, and treatment without avail. Finally we moved to Bosque county, our present home, and one day I happened to see an advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy with a testimonial of a man who had been cured by it. The case was so similar to my own that I concluded to try the remedy. The result was wonderful. I was cured. I realize that I was well again, or believed I could be so after having suffered so long, but that one bottle of medicine, cost me but a few cents, cured me." For sale by C. K. Wyly, druggist.

Lightning's Work.

Lightning struck a church at New Concord, O., killed a man, prostrated two other persons and caused a panic, in which several children were injured.

The Perfect Liver Medicine.

Mrs. M. A. Jolly, Noble, O. T., writes: "I have used Herbine for a number of years, and can cheerfully recommend it as the most perfect liver medicine, and the greatest blood purifier. It is a medicine of positive merit, and fully accomplishes all that is claimed for it." Malaria cannot find a lodgment in the system while the liver is in perfect order, for one of its functions is to prevent the absorption of fever producing poisons. Herbine is a most efficient liver regulator. 50c at R. C. Hardwick's.

Sentenced to Prison.

Cures Sciatica.

Rev. W. L. Riley, L. L. D., Cuba, New York, writes: "After fifteen days of excruciating pain from sciatic rheumatism, under vigorous treatment, I was induced to try Ballard's Snow Liniment, the first application giving my first relief, and the second, entire relief. I can give it unqualified recommendation. 25c, 50c and $1 at Hardwick's."

THAT COVERED SCALP.

When the Democrats of the Second district are offered the opportunity, they will take the scalp proffered Mr. Watterson by Executive Committee Meacham, albeit so barren a one that an Indian would not molest it.—Louisville Times.

The executive committee who has come under the ban of the new leaders of the party in Louisville has for more than 21 years occupied a place in the party organization, county or state, without interruption. The so called honor is an expensive one, profitless and thankless. He has never asked for the position he holds but, has five times been elected by acclamation by the Democrats of his district without the asking. He is ready at any time to turn over the coveted honor (?) to any gentleman designated by the Louisville Courier Journal, a paper that has called upon Gov. Beckham to undo the work of the last State Convention and, by swapping horses in the middle of a swollen stream, destroy every chance the party may yet have to win in the face of the Louisville split. This is from the Courier-Journal.

If Governor Beckham and the estimable gentlemen on the Ticket of which he is the head, want to escape the full force of the most dangerous issue they will have to encounter in the coming campaign, they will reorganize their State Committee so as to put somebody in charge, who has at least a modicum of political wisdom and fidelity.

Gov. Beckham knows and Mr. Watterson knows that the gentlemen on the State ticket have no authority, if they had the disposition, to reorganize the state committee, even in order to gratify the demands of the Louisville machine. The offending gentleman named in the Second District voted for the calling of a convention to reorganize the committee and to nominate a State ticket last fall. He stood alone in the position he then occupied, with not even a word of encouragement from the Courier-Journal, now so intent on securing the scalps of the committeemen, who were Democrats as far back as 1896; he weathered the storm once before when the Courier-Journal was denouncing him and his fellow members of the committee as "archists" and he will not lose any sleep this time on account of the "enemies he has made."

There seems to be a decrease in the number of lynchings since the burning of rapists has become more common. From January 1 to July 1 there were only 19 lynchings in the United States, whereas there have been that many in one month in the past. Of these Louisiana had 2, Georgia 1, Florida 3, Mississippi 5, Missouri 1, Texas 1, Illinois 2, Wyoming 1, Pennsylvania 1, Delaware 1. Two of these, one in Wyoming and one in Florida, were white men. Burning was the fate of 4, 11 were hanging, 1 was shot, 2 were killed in race riot, and 1 was beaten to death. Only rape fiends have so far been burned at the stake.

SUMMER COLDS

Produce Chronic Catarrh.

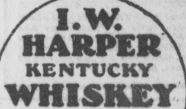

Madame Isabella Ellen Baynes.

Madame Isabella Ellen Baynes, Life Governor Grand Lodge of Free Masons of England, in a letter from Hotel Saratoga, Chicago, Ill., says:

"This summer while traveling I contracted a most persistent and annoying cold. My head ached, my eyes and nose seemed constantly running, my lungs were sore and I lost my appetite, health and good spirits. Doctors prescribed for me all manner of pills and powders, but all to no purpose."

"I advised with a druggist and he spoke so highly of a medicine called Peruna, that he induced me to try my first bottle of patent medicine. However, it proved such a help to me that I soon purchased another bottle and kept on until I was entirely well."

Madame Isabella Ellen Baynes. Summer colds require prompt treatment. They are always grave, and sometimes dangerous. The promptness and surety with which Peruna acts in these cases has saved many lives. A large dose of Peruna should be taken at the first appearance of a cold in summer, followed by small and oft-repeated doses. There is no other remedy that medical science can furnish, so reliable and quick in its action as Peruna. Address The Peruna Medicine Company, Columbus, Ohio, for a free book entitled "Summer Catarrh," which treats of the catarrhal diseases peculiar to summer.

Advice to the Aged.

Age brings infirmities, such as sluggish bowels, weak kidneys and bladder and TORPID LIVER.

Tutt's Pills
have a specific effect on these organs, stimulating the bowels, causing them to perform their natural functions as in youth and IMPARTING VIGOR to the kidneys, bladder and liver. They are adapted to old and young.

Two Killed and Many Injured.
At Chicago, a trolley car crashed into a freight train and two passengers were killed and many seriously injured.

Heartburn.
When the quantity of food taken is too large or the quality too rich, heartburn is likely to follow, and especially so if the digestion has been weakened by constipation. Eat slowly and not too freely of easily digested food. Masticate the food thoroughly. Let six hours elapse between meals and when you feel a fullness and weight in the region of the stomach after eating, indicating that you have eaten too much, take one of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and the heartburn may be avoided. For sale by C. K. Wyly, druggist.

Lightning Struck Church.
Lightning struck a church in Nicholas county and several persons were injured in the panic which followed.

Repulsive Features.
Blackheads, pimples, greasy faces and muddy complexions, which are so common among women, especially girls at a certain age, destroying beauty, disfiguring and making repulsive, features which would otherwise appear attractive and refined, indicate that the liver is out of order. An occasional dose of Herbine will cleanse the bowels, regulate the liver and so establish a clear, healthy complexion. 50c at R. C. Hardwick's.

Killed on Tug River.
On Tug River, eighteen miles from Louisa, Jack Glickerson was shot and killed by Lysa Fitzpatrick.

Symptoms.
If you suffer from sick headache, palpitation of the heart, heartburn, costiveness, flatulency, sour stomach or bad taste in the mouth, you have stomach and liver trouble. You should not delay, but get to your druggist at once and get a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It positively cures constipation, dyspepsia, liver and kidney troubles. 50c and $1. All druggists.

Resumes Duties.
Mayor Grainger, of Louisville, resumed his official duties Wednesday, after a vacation of a week.

Slight injuries often disable a man and cause several days' loss of time and when blood poison develops, sometimes result in the loss of a hand or limb. Chamberlain's Pain Balm is an antiseptic liniment. When applied to cuts, bruises and burns it causes them to heal quickly and without maturation, and prevents any danger of blood poisoning. For sale by C. K. Wyly, druggist.

Chief of Police Wounded.
The chief of police of Findlay, O., was wounded while conducting a raid on a saloon.

Sick Headache
is caused by constipation, indigestion and biliousness, which may be cured and the cause of the headache removed by the use of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. This splendid remedy may be obtained of all druggists in 50c and $1 bottles.

Report Denied.
The report that there is friction between the Administration at Washington and Count Cassini, the Russian Ambassador, is denied.

What's the secret of happy, vigorous health? Simply keeping the bowels, the stomach, the liver and kidneys strong and active. Burdock Blood Bitters does it.

Large Warehouse Burned.
One of the largest warehouse buildings in London was burned to the ground, entailing an enormous loss.

CRECULITY OF THE HINDOO.

Sample of the Delusions Which He Occasionally Harbors.

Here is a remarkable instance of the credulity of the Hindoo and the wild kind of delusions which he occasionally harbors, says London Truth. The writer is described as a Hindu gentleman of standing and reputation, and this extract is taken from a letter written to a gentleman in England:

"We are having awfully serious news circulated in the papers here. Extracts purported to be from the Morning Leader of London and La Guardia of Spain impress us that the emperor on the coronation day was dangerously ill and was never fully recovered, for the ministers caused him to be personated by a beggar of Whitechapel. We are really very concerned to hear it, and we firmly believe the news to be a false creation, but wonder why the government is still inactive in regard to taking any steps to punish the author of so foul a calumny."

The gentleman who sends me the above extract gives me other quaint examples of the amusing fictions which gained currency among the natives of India. The bigger and the more preposterous the lie, he says, the more readily it is believed. When the jubilee bridge over the Hooghly was being built, the story got about that the government required a thousand heads of natives for the foundation of the bridge, and had given orders that all natives walking over the maiden after dark were to be seized and taken to the Sultan Khana (the native name for the Masonic lodge), where their heads were to be cut off for use in the uncanny engineering operation. The natives, it is said, were afraid to walk in that direction after dark for this reason.

Again, at the time of the last Indian frontier war, a fat Babu clerk disappeared from one of the government offices and could not be found. It was firmly believed, says my correspondent, by his fellow clerks and neighbors, that he had been seized by order of the government, to be made into ointment for the benefit of the wounded soldiers. Happily, the fat Babu turned up again safe and sound, so no serious consequences resulted from this delusion. If an idea like this can be seriously accepted, as my informant says it was, by the class of natives who pass examinations and hold public appointments, nothing that may find acceptance with the "lower orders" can be wondered at.

HINDU SUPERSTITIONS.
Some of the Ridiculous Things That Interfere with Progress.

A resident of Dharmapuri, writing on the subject of Hindu superstitions, says the Madras Mail, says that a married woman, a dancing girl, a mirror and an ass—the most neglected of the Indian domestic animals—are also among the first objects of good omen which a Hindu must meet as soon as he wakes from his sleep. A Hindu does not stir out of his house on any errand, not only during the rakshakalam—an hour and a half a day—but also some time before it. Some do not do any work during gulakalam as well—another one hour and a half a day. The correspondent does not mention that in more advanced countries some people make rakakalam and gulakalam last a great deal longer. Besides these there are natchathrams (tides), of which there are 28, each of which occurs every day. A particular natchathram on a particular day is either good or bad. At times an orthodox Hindu will not have a "good" day even in a fortnight. Even sneezing is inauspicious. Instances are not rare in which men are prevented from attending their office by slum sneezing. The espying of a male and a female crow together means the galling death of the observer. His fate may be averted by writing a letter to some of his relatives at a distance saying that he is dead. The appearance of a rattlesnake at the right-hand side on a journey is considered most lucky. A Hindu will never feed a guest for the first time on Sundays, Tuesdays or Thursdays—these days are supposed to bring calamity between the host and the guest. A Hindu doctor will never administer medicines to his patient, even if he is very dangerously ill, for the first time on any day other than Sunday or Thursday. It is also laid down that a Hindu should never sleep with his head toward the south—the direction in which yama, the god of death, is supposed to live. East and west are always preferred.

A LUDICROUS SITUATION.

Real Estate Agent and Lady on Involuntary Exhibition.

"The fad for nature stories, especially entertaining sketches of animal and plant life, is interesting in more ways than one," observed a man who had been playing golf for over an hour with his usual ardor from an easy chair on the club porch, according to the Washington Star.

"I should imagine it was extremely interesting," said his companion, who had got as far on with his game of golf as to have his flannels on, "especially to the lucky dog whose book had happened to strike the popular fancy."

"That is one view of it," was the response, "even if it is limited to a very few individuals. What gaverise to this train of thought was a recent visit I made to the Zoo. As I passed along in front of the cages with the rest of the curious visitors and gazed at the animals as they ate, or rested, or were trying to get some exercise I wondered what they thought of the animals that were on the outside of the bars of their cages. Now that we are taught, in spite of the protest of John Burroughs, that animals have a wide range of sensibilities and minds, capable of reason, it, of course, follows that they are not insensible of their situation in being on public exhibition."

"Human beings, unless they are of the dime museum variety, do not care for that sort of publicity. Sometimes it is forced upon them, as happened not long ago to a man I know who is in the real estate business. He was showing a house that he had for rent to a lady, and in the course of the inspection tour they came to a conservatory, which was a tiny place, with the side facing the street made entirely of glass. They both stepped inside, and were looking about, when the door shut with a bang and they discovered to their consternation that it had a spring lock, which could only be opened from the other side. The situation was a ludicrous one, as it now appears, but it did not seem so very funny at the time to be imprisoned in such close quarters in full view of the public street. For a time they were at a loss what to do, as there was no one in the house and the glass was set in immovable sashes. However, the upper portion of the door was of glass, and it was the work of only a minute for the man to smash the glass and reach his hand through the opening and unlock the door."

"Rather scanty material for an autobiography of animal life in captivity," drily observed the man in flannels, as he reached for his golf sticks and started for the links, "but no doubt one will be written."

A SPEECH WITHOUT WORDS.

Mute Reply of a Massachusetts Congressman to a Wordy Assailant.

Francis H. Leupp says that probably the shortest speech ever delivered in congress was made by "Ben" Butler, of Massachusetts. An Ohio member had fallen afoot of him one day and poured upon him a torrent of abuse which would have excited general indignation but for an unconsciously ridiculous gesture with which the orator accompanied almost every alternate sentence; this rendered the disgust of his hearers with mirth. He would raise his arms just as high above his head as possible and then wring his hands as if he were making a delirious attempt to wring them off. Butler sat through the speech with his eyes half closed, not moving a muscle. He rose when his assailant finished and stood calmly in the aisle. After a minute of silence he began: "Mr. Speaker!" Another impressive pause, and expectancy reached nearly the bursting point. Suddenly raising his arms, Butler reproduced exactly the awful gestures of the Ohio congressman. Then his arms fell to his sides, and for another minute he stood silent. "That is all, Mr. Speaker," he said finally, and, still dumb, "I just wanted to answer the gentleman from Ohio."

FLAGRANT FRAUDS.

Sworn Testimony of Election Officers and Others.

The Affidavits Upon Which the Democratic Ticket Committee Disregarded Fraudulent Votes.

In order that the Democrats of the Third judicial district may understand the true nature of the South Cadiz Trigg county, by which Judge Bush was deprived of his legal rights in at least three precincts, we present for the first time the affidavits of election officers and others, who witnessed the high handed proceedings, which Judge Cook's followers are asking the committee and the people to approve. The polls were kept open until five o'clock, after the law had been read to the officers and a demand made that it be observed.
Voters were boosted into open windows and allowed to vote after the polls were closed. Returns not certified to were fixed up to meet the requirements and ballot boxes were opened in advance of the time fixed by law.

The testimony given below is under oath and speaks for itself. No fair minded man can read it and not be convinced that the Trigg county frauds should not be tolerated a moment. If such things had been done in a general election, Judge Cook would have instructed his first grand jury to indict the guilty parties. Read the record:

SHERIFF OF SOUTH CADIZ TESTIFIES.

The affiant, Ottaway Tart, says that he was the sheriff of the election at the primary election in the South Cadiz election precinct on the 9th of May, 1903, to nominate Democratic candidates for circuit judge and commonwealth's attorney in the Third judicial district of Kentucky.

We were furnished a ballot box
with only one lock and only one key to it.

He further states that I had no watch or time piece with me on the day that the election was held. That Judge Robert Crenshaw came to the voting place, and told the officers holding the election that he had been appointed inspector to help count the vote, and that it was then past four o'clock, and time for the polls to close. But the judges of the election for said precinct refused to close the polls, then Judge Crenshaw read the law in regard to closing the polls.

John W. Kelly then came in and said if they closed the polls then that 20 voters would be cut out of voting, and insisted on keeping the polls open longer. Said judges did keep the polls open for some time thereafter and until all persons who wanted to vote had an opportunity of voting. I think there were at least 20 or more voters cast after Judge Crenshaw came in and tried to get the officers to close the polls had been crowded for half an hour before Judge Crenshaw came in and requested the officers to close, I suppose at the rate of about one a minute. After the polls were closed myself and the judges gave up the box to Mr. John G.
Jefferson at his store to be kept by him, and on Monday following, by direction of J. F. Ladd, the county chairman of the Democratic county committee, in company with one of the judges delivered the ballot
box and the key to same to Mr. J.
F. Ladd, the county chairman.

I, Ottaway Tart, say that I believe the statements in the foregoing affidavit are true.

SOUTH CADIZ VOTING TELL NEARLY

5 O'CLOCK.

The affiant, I. B. Askew, says that he is a Democrat, and has been voting the Democratic ticket for the last 45 years. I reside in the city of Cadiz, and vote in the South Cadiz district. I was present on the 9th day of May, 1903, in the hall of the court house in Cadiz
and around the grand jury room for one and one-half hours, in the precinct in North Cadiz, in the afternoon, while the vote was being taken, and saw a crowd of persons standing around the door where the voters were seeking admission to the room to vote. I was present after 4 o'clock and saw Major Garrett, J. E. Edwards and Judge J.

D. Shaw take out their watches and state that it was then after 4 o'clock
and the polls ought to be closed.
About ten minutes after 4 o'clock,
according to the time as given by the above enumerated gentlemen, I saw Judge Crenshaw crowd his way by the persons crowding around the grand jury room door
and enter the room where the vote was being taken. I could not tell what was said or done, but he came out, a short time after going in, and the voting continued until within a few minutes to 5 o'clock. In my judgment and to the best of my belief there were not less than 25 votes cast after 4 o'clock in the South Cadiz district, judging from the number of persons I saw going in and coming out of the room where the vote was being held.

going are true. J. B. ASKEW.

THIS WITNESS.

The affiant, M. S. Thompson,
states that he is a legal resident
and voter in the South Cadiz pre-

Trigg, state of Kentucky, and that
he voted and was a legal voter in
the primary held by the Democratic party on the 9th day of May,

candidates in the Third judicial
district of Kentucky to make the race on the Democratic ticket, at
the November election, 1903, for the offices of circuit judge and common-
wealth's attorney.

He states that he was standing
in front of the polls in said precinct at the hour of four o'clock, and
that he remarked that it was time
to close the polls, but that the polls
did not close until 5 minutes of 5
o'clock p. m., and he states that at least 25 or 30 voters entered said
polls and voted after 4 o'clock, the
time the polls should have closed.

He states that a few minutes after 5 o'clock he saw Judge Robt. Crenshaw go into the polls. He states
that he knows what time it was because he examined his watch and
examined a half-dozen watches
around him and that Henry Law-

one present and his watch showed 5 minutes of 5 o'clock when the polls
closed.

states that he is a legal resident
and voter in the South Cadiz precinct in the city of Cadiz, county of Trigg, state of Kentucky, and that
he voted and was a legal voter in
the primary held by the Democratic party on the 9th day of May, 1903, for the purpose of nominating candidates in the Third judicial
district of Kentucky to make the
race on the Democratic ticket, at
the November election, 1903, for the
offices of circuit judge and common-
wealth's attorney.

He states that he was standing
in front of the polls in said precinct at the hour of four o'clock, and
that he remarked that it was time
to close the polls, but that the polls
did not close until 5 minutes of 5
o'clock p. m., and he states that at
least 25 or 30 voters entered said
polls and voted after 4 o'clock, the
time the polls should have closed.

He states that a few minutes after
5 o'clock he saw Judge Robt. Cren-
shaw go into the polls. He states
that he knows what time it was because he examined his watch and
examined a half-dozen watches
around him and that Henry Lawrence had the slowest time of any one present and his watch showed
5 minutes of 5 o'clock when the polls
closed.
